

Haymarket

PEOPLE'S FUND

2023 Sustaining Grants

2023 Haymarket Grantees Glossary:

Access Cooperative	10	Reclaim RI	5
African Alliance of Rhode Island	6	Revere Youth in Action	11
Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance	7	Right to the City Boston	3
Amherst Racial Equity Organizers	5	SISTA Fire	10
Beantown Society	10	Sisters Unchained	4
Black and Pink MA	4	South Asian Workers' Center	9
Boston Education Justice Alliance	5	Southeastern Connecticut Community Land Trust	6
Break the Cycle	4	Southern Maine Workers' Center	9
Brockton Workers Alliance	7	Springfield No One Leaves	6
Center to Support Immigrant Organizing	7	Step Up New London	3
Centro Comunitario de Trabajadores (CCT)	8	Sunlight Media Collective	10
Children of Marsha P. Johnson	11	The Dream Network	4
Community Organizing Alliance	2	The FANG Collective	9
Connecticut Worker Center, Inc.	8	Unidad Latina en Accion	9
Coyote RI	8	United Youth Empowerment Services	11
Dominican Development Center	8	Unity Circles	4
Done for Didi, Inc	2	Visioning B.E.A.R. Circle Intertribal Coalition, Inc	4
Education Justice Coalition of VT	5	Voices of Liberation	3
Family Matters 1st	4	George Wiley Center	5
George Wiley Center	4	Women's Institute for Leadership Development	9
Greater Malden Asian Community Center	2	Worcester Anti-Foreclosure Team	7
Grow to Consume	6	Worcester Roots Project	5
GROW Windham	11	Worcester Youth Cooperatives	11
JustME for JustUS	11	Youth Justice and Power Union	11
Lynn Worker Center	9
Maine Immigrant Housing Coalition	6	2023 URGENT RESPONSE GRANTS	12
Manchester Community Action Coalition	2	Southern Maine Workers' Center
Massachusetts Coalition of Domestic Workers	9	Community Youth Services
Native Green	6	R.P.M. Voices of Rhode Island
Neighbors United for a Better East Boston (N.U.B.E.)	3	Out for Good, Inc.
N.H. Equity Leaders Fellowship	3	Revere Housing Coalition
Olneyville Neighborhood Association	9	Education Justice Coalition of Vermont

2023 SUSTAINING GRANTS

 Multi-year grants

COMMUNITY/NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZING

Community Organizing Alliance

$13,200

Safiya Khalid
PO Box 2494
Augusta, ME 04338
Email: safiya.khalid@coamaine.org
Website: www.communityorganizingalliance.org
Community Organizing Alliance invests in people to enable them to shape and change the landscape of their community. They envision and aspire to create an inclusive democracy where everyone, regardless of nationality and background, is included, heard, and empowered. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Done for Didi, Inc.

$13,200

Belinda Draft
675 VFW Parkway, #133
Chestnut Hill, MA 02467
Email: info@donefordidi.org
Website: www.donefordidi.org
Done for Didi (D4D) operates under the vision of engaging in Black Liberation work through a reparations lens. The D4D team takes on an influx of white people on social media who want to learn about anti-racism and anti-oppression and leverages their labor and money to work and provide monthly micro-funding, stipends, and seed funding for projects led by Black MaGes (Marginalized Genders). Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Greater Malden Asian Community Center

$13,200

Akola Krishnan
124 Ferry Street
Malden, MA 02148
Email: admin@gmaacc.org
Website: www.gmaacc.org
Greater Malden Asian American Community Coalition (G.M.A.A.C.C.) is a grassroots nonprofit organization that builds power with community members of Malden, MA, and nearby areas. They provide services, strengthen coalitions, and organize community members to advance well-being and equity. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Manchester Community Action Coalition

$18,350

Kile Adumene
84 Healion Street
Manchester, NH 03109
Email: kile@mcacnh.org
Website: www.mcacnh.org
Manchester Community Action Coalition (M.C.A.C.) provides a safe space for the marginalized (Black, Brown, Indigenous, Immigrant, P.O.C., Disability, LGBTQIA+) community in Manchester to discuss, share, and discover needs within the community. They aim to improve their lives as they organize to work together and create a unified agenda and solutions that promote well-being, sense of belonging, dignity, and justice for all. Haymarket funds will go to general operating to support their family-centered childcare movement building group.

Neighbors United for a Better East Boston (N.U.B.E.)
$13,200

Eny Lovo
19 Meridia Street, Suite 3
East Boston, MA 02128
Email: elovo@nubeastboston.org
Website: www.nubeastboston.org
Neighbors United for a Better East Boston (N.U.B.E.) is a grassroots neighborhood-based organization that develops Abundant Leaders who support social transformation and the repositioning of political power. Their leaders organize and advocate for inclusive democratic approaches and public policies to create a vibrant economy and environment for all of East Boston. Haymarket funds will go to general operating to support their three core programs: the Building Roots, Abundant Leadership Program; Fertile Soils, Civic, and Voter Engagement Calendar; and Innovation Clouds: Alternative Systems Model Experimentation Program.

Right to the City Boston
$24,000

Vicki DiLorenzo
102 Columbia Road, Rear, Lower-Level
Boston, MA 02121
Email: vicki@righttothecity.org
Website: www.facebook.com/RightToTheCityBoston/
Right to the City Boston (R.T.C.B.) is a multi-issued alliance of grassroots voices working together for change! R.T.C.B. organizes strategic campaigns that unite its members around a common theory of change. They uplift the leadership of communities of color, centered in black, brown, and immigrant communities across the Greater Boston region. They envision a City with equal access to affordable housing, economic opportunities, a healthy environment, and public resources for all. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Step Up New London
$18,350

Trina Charles
106 Truman Street
New London, CT 06320
Email: tcharles.sunl@gmail.com
Website: www.stepupnewlondon.org
Step Up New London (S.U.N.L.) is a Black and Brown parent-led organization that fights for equitable solutions that address injustices their community experiences in accessing quality education and housing. Through opportunities for leadership development, community building, and political education, S.U.N.L. supports its members in exploring how systemic oppression and racism have shaped their homes and lives. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

N.H. Equity Leaders Fellowship
$13,200

Jason Bonilla
New Hampshire
Email: jbonilla@equityleadersfellowshipnh.org
Website: www.snhahcec.org/equity-leaders-fellowship.html
The Equity Leaders Fellowship (E.L.F.) was developed by leaders of color for leaders of color to grow the network of engaged leaders of color in New Hampshire for collective action and positive community change. The overall goal of E.L.F. is to build a deep understanding of equity, anti-racism, and capacity for collective impact around priority issues for communities of color by intentional analysis, understanding of root causes, and organizing to shift power and create systemic change. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Voices of Liberation
$13,200

Jake Leidolf
8 Dresden Street #1
Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
Email: voicesofliberation@gmail.com
Website: N/A
Voices of Liberation uplifts the community by providing opportunities for engagement and communal elevation. Their goal is to create meaningful positive social change and improve the conditions that exist in their communities through organizing funding and resource distribution. Haymarket funds will go to general operating to support their “Heal the Hood” program.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM / RESTORATIVE JUSTICE ORGANIZING

Black and Pink MA $13,200

Michael Cox
PO Box 1718
Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
Email: michael@blackandpinkma.org
Website: N/A

Black and Pink MA is a volunteer-fueled organization working to abolish the criminal punishment system, which disproportionately impacts lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and intersex people, as well as those living with H.I.V. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Break the Cycle $13,200

Eric Larson
70 Lafayette Street
Pawtucket, RI 02860
Email: geograffias@yahoo.com
Website: <https://www.facebook.com/BreaktheCycleCooperativeHub>

The mission of Break the Cycle Cooperative Hub is to create and promote access to ownership and employment through worker-owned cooperatives for formerly incarcerated people and BIPOC communities, thereby creating avenues for economic and racial justice. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Family Matters 1st $13,200

Tatiana Rodriguez
269 Harvard Street, Apt 7
Cambridge, MA 02139
Email: familymattersboston@gmail.com
Website: N/A

The mission of Family Matters 1st is to bring together, educate, advocate, and support those disproportionately affected by the family policing system - Black, brown, and poor families. They seek to empower and organize families to use their voices to impact public policy that could interrupt this oppressive system. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Sisters Unchained $18,350

Vanessa Ly
PO Box 300902
Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
Email: vanessa@sistersunchained.com
Website: <https://sistersunchained.com/>

Sisters Unchained is a prison abolitionist organization dedicated to supporting young women and girls with incarcerated or formerly incarcerated parents. They are a refuge space where young women of color can focus on loving and improving themselves and their communities as they see fit. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

The Dream Network $13,200

Stacy Seward
78 Gibert Street
Lawrence, MA 01843
Email: info@thedreamnetwork.org
Website: www.thedreamnetwork.org

The Dream Network’s mission is to promote equity within community by addressing social, racial, economic, environmental, and educational justice. They do this work through the lens of those impacted by the carceral system. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Unity Circles $13,200

Mariam Levy
26 Blue Jay Circle
Mattapan, MA 02126
Email: fundraising@unitycircles.com
Website: www.unitycircles.org

Unity Circles’ (U.C.) mission is to support a network of individuals and communities that center healing and transformation over punishment and crime, striving to build skills to replace cycles of violence with cycles of healing. Haymarket funds will go to general operating to support a Transformative Justice (T.J.) Hub within Boston which is working towards the abolition of carceral systems.

Visioning B.E.A.R. Circle Intertribal Coalition, Inc. $18,350

Strong Oak Lefebvre
PO Box 1286
Greenfield, MA 01032
Email: visioningb.e.a.r@gmail.com
Website: www.visioningbear.org

The mission of Visioning B.E.A.R. (balance, equality, and respect) Circle Intertribal Coalition is to prevent domestic, sexual, and all forms of interpersonal violence in the Northeast and nationally through reindigenation using circle process. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

ECONOMIC JUSTICE ORGANIZING

George Wiley Center $18,350

Camilo Viveiros
32 East Avenue
Pawtucket, RI 02860
Email: camiloviveiros@gmail.com
Website: www.georgewileycenter.org

The George Wiley Center is a statewide group actively committed to local community organizing to create social, racial, and economic justice through changes in public policy. They are mobilizing to bring back a Percentage Income Project to Rhode Island to stop the utility shut-off crisis in low-income communities. By building people’s power, they are organizing to make energy affordable and accessible for all communities across Rhode Island. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Reclaim RI$13,200

Tyler Brown
 219 Carpenter Street
 Providence, RI 02903
 Email: tylercrown88@gmail.com
 Website: www.reclaimri.org

Reclaim RI is a grassroots organization fighting to make Rhode Island work for the people. Through issue-based and electoral campaigns, organizer trainings, and political education events, they ensure that all communities in their state have a voice, especially poor and working-class communities of color. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Worcester Roots Project*$13,200

Thidi Tshiguvho
 4 King Street
 Worcester, MA 01610
 Email: thidi@WorcesterRoots.org
 Website: www.WorcesterRoots.org

Worcester Roots is a collective of youth and adult organizers on a mission to create opportunities for economic, social, and environmental justice. Their work revolves around 1) social justice youth development, leadership training, and mentoring, 2) incubation of mission-led worker cooperatives that create sustainable jobs in Worcester, MA, and 3) promoting Solidarity Economics in cross-movement spaces. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

EDUCATION JUSTICE ORGANIZINGAmherst Racial Equity Organizers*$13,200

Ruth Killough-Hill
 49 Greenwich Road
 Amherst, MA 01002
 Email: rkilloughhill@gmail.com
 Website: N/A

Amherst Racial Equity Organizers' mission is to nurture and build racial equitable education and schools where all children can succeed academically, socially, and emotionally. Their cultural and racial identities are integral in developing policies, procedures, and practices, and families are vital to the life of the school community. Haymarket funds will go to support Changing Schools via Ethnic Studies.

Boston Education Justice Alliance$24,000

Ruby Reyes
 c/o Resist
 42 Seaverns Avenue
 Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
 Email: bejaruby@gmail.com
 Website: www.bostonedjustice.org

Boston Education Justice Alliance's (B.E.J.A.) mission is the pursuit of justice for students, parents, and educators in the Boston Public School system by building the sustainable leadership of parents in partnership with an already-existing leadership structure of students and teachers. They are committed to building a stronger and better public school system driven by parents, youth, teachers, and community voices. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Education Justice Coalition of VT*$13,200

Alyssa Chen
 393 Manhattan Drive
 Burlington, VT 05401
 Email: alyssa.edjvt@gmail.com
 Website: https://ethnicstudiesvt.org

The Education Justice Coalition of VT's mission is to promote justice for all students in the Vermont education system through organizing, building community power, and developing and promoting Ethnic studies, Disability studies, Native American Studies, and LGBTQIA + curriculum and pedagogy. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE/ FOOD AND LAND JUSTICE ORGANIZING

African Alliance of Rhode Island $13,200

Julius Kolwale
807 Broad Street, Suite 121
Providence, RI 02907
Email: jokolawole@gmail.com
Website: www.africanallianceri.org
The African Alliance of Rhode Island (A.A.R.I.) is dedicated to improving the lives of refugees, immigrants, and low-income people living in Rhode Island. Their mission is to promote unity within the African Communities in R.I., advocate for the rights of Africans in R.I., and educate the American public about Africa while elevating the profile of the continent and facilitating linkages between Americans and Africans. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Grow to Consume $13,200

Saskia VannJames
20 Lawn Street
Roxbury, MA 02120
Email: growtoconsume@gmail.com
Website: <https://growtoconsume.wixsite.com/grow-to-consume>
Grow to Consume is a free public health education program designed to address health inequities stemming from systemic racism through a reparative justice lens for Black people of all communities across the Greater Boston area. Their work highlights the intersection of environmental racism, climate change, housing injustice, land injustice, food injustice, and plant medicine injustice through a 'healthy soil, healthy guts, healthy mind' approach to address the racial health inequities facing Black communities today. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Native Green $18,350

Cristina Cabrera
100 Hartford Avenue #29837
Providence, RI 02909
Email: criscabreraeph@gmail.com
Website: N/A
Native Green unites Indigenous Ancestral Vision & Expertise & Traditional Historical Knowledge, Indigenous Environmental Justice Principles, Roots, Organizing, and Echoes Around the World to restore the balance of Mother Earth in Spirit and protecting the well-being, health, safety, history, and culture of Her and ALL. Haymarket funds will go to general operating to continue strengthening and developing E.J. Hubs throughout Rhode Island and the Northeastern region, together with the building and development of Echoes Around the World.

Southeastern Connecticut Community Land Trust $13,200

Joanne Sheehan
79 Maple Street
Norwich, CT 06360
Email: joannepsheehan@gmail.com
Website: www.sectclt.org
The Southeastern Connecticut Community Land Trust (S.E. CT CLT) is a membership-based organization that holds land for the development and stewardship of permanently affordable housing, food production and green spaces, and facilities for community organizations. The New London CLT Chapter is at a growth point, and they want to ensure that their growth is consistent with their anti-racist values and is transparent and democratic. Haymarket funds will go to general operating to support this work.

HOUSING / TENANTS RIGHTS ORGANIZING

Maine Immigrant Housing Coalition $13,200

Lado Lodoka
1 Marginal Way
Portland, ME 04101
Email: lowuro@gmail.com
Website: N/A
The Maine Immigrant Housing Coalition's mission is to ensure everyone has a decent, affordable place to call home. They accomplished this through organizing, outreach, education, and advocacy. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Springfield No One Leaves* $24,000

Rosa Webster-Smith
143 Main Street, Suite 103
Springfield, MA 01103
Email: rose@springfieldnooneleaves.org
Website: www.springfieldmooneleaves.org
Springfield No One Leaves is a grassroots member-led organization based in Springfield, MA. They organize residents most directly impacted by the housing crisis and economic inequality to build collective power, defend against displacement, and win long-term community control over land and housing. Through direct action campaigns, leadership development, political education, and building community solidarity, they train residents to be leaders and organizers for a broad social justice movement. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Worcester Anti-Foreclosure Team $18,350

Grace Ross
 418 Main Street, Room 230
 Worcester, MA 01609
 Email: worcesterantiforeclosureteam@gmail.com
 Website: www.worcesterantiforeclosureteam.blogspot.com
 The Worcester Anti Foreclosure Team (WAFI) brings homeowners and tenants together to fight foreclosures, save and return homes illegally foreclosed, or halt illegal evictions. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

IMMIGRANT & REFUGEE RIGHTS / HUMAN RIGHTS / WORKERS RIGHTS ORGANIZING

Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance $24,000

Cata Lorenzo Antonio
 PO Box 9379
 Providence, RI 02940
 Email: cata@amorri.org
 Website: www.amorri.org
 Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance (A.M.O.R.) is an alliance of community-based grassroots organizations mobilizing at the intersections of race, class, gender, sexual orientation, and immigration status to prevent, respond to, and end state violence against their community. They are organizing to place sovereignty back into the hands of communities directly affected by systemic oppression and build leadership, generate power, create sustainability, and organize resistance with and alongside all directly affected peoples. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Brockton Workers Alliance $24,000

Isabel Lopez
 721 Belmont Street
 Brockton, MA 02301
 Email: isabel.brocktonefforts@gmail.com
 Website: https://brockton-workers-alliance.blogspot.com
 The Brockton Workers Alliance’s mission is to educate, support, organize, and empower immigrant workers to confront long-term workplace abuses and lead the fight for their rights by developing better local, state, and national policies. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Center to Support Immigrant Organizing $18,350

Luz Zambarano
 89 South Street #203
 Boston, MA 02111
 Email: csioboston@gmail.com
 Website: www.csioboston.org
 The mission of the Center to Support Immigrant Organizing (C.S.I.O.) is to support and help develop the work of individuals, groups, organizations, and communities dedicated to organizing immigrants around the issues that affect their lives. Their goal is to help immigrants in the forefront of community and workplace struggles to develop their power and leadership not only to succeed in their immediate context but also to contribute to the broader effort to build a more just and democratic society. They unite immigrant communities to collectively address the root causes of the injustice facing them - racism, xenophobia, classism, and other structural injustices. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Centro Comunitario de Trabajadores (CCT) $18,350

Lisa Maya Knauer
1534 Acushnet Avenue
New Bedford, MA 02746
Email: cctnbm@hotmail.com
Website: www.cct-newbedford.org

Centro Comunitario de Trabajadores (C.C.T.) is a workers' center serving immigrant and low-wage workers in New Bedford and the surrounding region, founded, staffed, and governed entirely by immigrant workers. Their multi-faceted approach addresses individual workers' complaints; focuses on specific workplaces with a history of exploitative, unsafe conditions; and targets temporary agencies as local businesses increasingly use them to hide their reliance upon undocumented workers. They empower workers to obtain justice and dignity at work and in the community by educating them about their rights and helping them organize and take action to secure their rights. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Connecticut Worker Center, Inc. $1,3200

Nellie Jara
1067 Park Avenue
Bridgeport, CT 06604
Email: ctworkercenter@gmail.com
Website: www.ctworkercenter.org

The Connecticut Worker Center is a grassroots community worker center whose mission is to support immigrants on workplace and immigrant rights issues. Through organizing, advocacy, education, leadership training, capacity building, civic participation, and policy analysis they promote their community's exercise of its civil and human rights and a more just society for all. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Coyote RI $18,350

Bella Robinson
43 Old Carriage Road #126
West Warwick, RI 02893
Email: bella@coyoteri.org
Website: www.coyoteri.org

COYOTE RI is a sex worker-led organization based in Providence, RI. COYOTE works with people in the sex industry to create community, safe spaces, and policy that promotes health and safety. Their constituency includes street-based sex workers, youths (18-26), LGBTQ+ people, sex workers of color, trans women, and migrant sex workers who face additional systemic barriers, including lack of English language proficiency, precarious and mixed citizenship status, anti-Asian xenophobia related to the pandemic, and pervasive racism inside and outside of the sex industry. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Dominican Development Center $18,350

Maga Troncoso
42 Seaverns Avenue
Boston, MA 02130
Email: dominicandevlopmentcenter@gmail.com
Website: www.dominicandevlopmentcenter.org

The Dominican Development Center is an organization led and directed by immigrant residents of Boston, Massachusetts. Their mission is to develop and empower Dominican immigrants and immigrants representing all Latin American and Caribbean communities. They promote and organize around issues that might impact their communities, including but not limited to current laws, legal procedures, education, immigration reform, and human rights, among others. Haymarket funding will support their Domestic Worker Leadership Organizing Project & Immigrant Defense Project.

Lynn Worker Center $24,000

Julio Ruiz
PO Box 187
Lynn, MA 01903
Email: lynnworkercenter@gmail.com
Website: N/A

Lynn Worker Center is dedicated to providing the space for low-wage immigrant workers to develop and strengthen their leadership to take collective action to stop unscrupulous employers from using exploitative practices to increase their profits. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Massachusetts Coalition of Domestic Workers $24,000

Myriam Hernandez Jennings
89 South Street
Boston, MA 02111
Email: director@massdomesticworkers.org
Website: www.massdomesticworkers.org

The Massachusetts Coalition of Domestic Workers (M.C.D.W.), founded in 2010, works to bring racial and social justice and dignity to all domestic workers in MA. With a focus on building partnerships with several organizations, M.C.D.W. organizes immigrant women, including those who work as domestic workers, to advocate for themselves on the issues they face in the workplace. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Olneyville Neighborhood Association $13,200

Juanito Moreno
122 Manton Avenue, Unit 611, Box 8
Providence, RI 02909
Email: ona@ona-providence.org
Website: www.ona-providence.org

The Olneyville Neighborhood Association (ONA) envisions a community where the social, economic, political, cultural, and environmental conditions are such that each person lives with dignity. ONA is dedicated to organizing low-income families, immigrant communities & people of color in Olneyville to create a diverse, community-led, democratic, and non-partisan political movement that wins economic, social, and political justice. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

South Asian Workers' Center $13,200

Jyoti Sinha
PO Box 417
Weymouth, MA 02188
Email: sawc.boston@gmail.com
Website: www.sawcus.org

South Asian Workers' Center's (S.A.W.C.) mission is to foster a supportive network for low-income South Asians, particularly women, and girls living in public housing in the Boston area. Their work spans economic empowerment, workers' rights advocacy, sustaining immigrant women's support networks, mental health and wellness education, political mobilization, and building solidarity through educational activities for children and youth. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Southern Maine Workers' Center $13,200

Ronny Flannery
56 North Street, Suite 100
Portland, ME 04101
Email: ronny@maineworkers.org
Website: www.maineworkers.org

Southern Maine Workers' Center's mission is to improve the lives and working conditions of Maine's poor and working-class people. They believe poor people must organize together to transform their workplaces and communities. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

The FANG Collective $24,000

June Kramer
545 Pawtucket Avenue, S107
Pawtucket, RI 02860
Email: contact@thefangcollective.org
Website: www.thefangcollective.org

The FANG Collective leads direct action campaigns and helps build movement capacity. They are focused on prison and police abolition in the Rhode Island area. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support to build longevity in their campaigns to abolish cash bail and to fight against I.C.E. contracts in their area.

Unidad Latina en Accion $18,350

John Jairo Lugo
37 Howe Street
New Haven, CT 06511
Email: admin@ulanewhaven.org
Website: www.ULAnewhaven.org

Unidad Latina en Accion (U.L.A.) is a grassroots organization that builds immigrant power to fight for racial and economic justice using a combination of direct action, movement building, and social justice media and creative arts. U.L.A. focuses on transforming two systems where undocumented immigrants experience human rights violations: the workplace and the immigration / criminal injustice system. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support to continue their current work and build the power of undocumented workers to create fair labor standards.

Women's Institute for Leadership Development $13,200

Terry King
108 Myrtle Street, 4th Floor
Quincy, MA 02171
Email: Terry.King@umb.edu
Website: www.wildlabor.org

The Women's Institute for Leadership Development (WILD) seeks to bring about social change by empowering women to become change agents in their unions, workplaces, and community organizations. WILD's mission is to empower women to fight racism, sexism, class, homophobia, and other issues of oppression within unions and the larger labor movement. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

INDIGENOUS RIGHTS ORGANIZING

American Friends Service Committee Wabanaki Program* $24,000

Jenn Mansfield
 P.O. Box 406
 Perry, ME 04667
 Email: JMansfield@afsc.org
 Website: www.afsc.org/office/perry-me
 The American Friends Service Committee (A.F.S.C.) Wabanaki Program has been working for over 20 years on building Native grassroots movements that seek to address problems in the Native communities of Maine. The program is uncovering, acknowledging, and redressing a history of systemic repression, racism, and abuse of Native people. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Sunlight Media Collective $18,350

Meredith DeFrancesco
 109 North Road
 Lamoine, ME 04605
 Email: sunlightmediacollective@gmail.com
 Website: www.sunlightmediacollective.org
 The Sunlight Media Collective is an organization of indigenous and non-indigenous media makers and activists, including Wabanaki tribal members, working to document and present stories affecting Wabanaki people and highlighting Wabanaki perspectives, with a particular emphasis on the intersection between environmental issues and tribal rights. Their work aims to facilitate understanding, analysis, and historical context and to create and organize educational opportunities and events for alliance building and social change. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

LANGUAGE JUSTICE

Access Cooperative $18,350

Xiomara Paulina
 50 Moroney Road
 Grafton, MA 01519
 Email: info@accessne.coop
 Website: www.accessne.coop
 Access Cooperative seeks to bridge the communication and cultural divides within their community to ensure that all community members have access to essential services, participate fully in community systems and affairs, and exercise their voice to determine community direction. Haymarket will support its Caminando Juntas project.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS/ REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE

SISTA Fire * $24,000

Ditra Edwards
 41 Woodmont Street
 Providence, RI 02907
 Email: ditra.edwards@sistafireri.org
 Website: www.sistafireri.org
 SISTA Fire seeks to support and nurture women of color to come together to build their collective power for social, economic, and political transformation. SISTA Fire seeks to address the systemic racism and maternal health crisis that Black women, women of color, Birthing Parents, and their children face within Rhode Island. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

YOUTH ORGANIZING

Beantown Society $13,200

Charming Salaman
 PO Box 301240
 Jamaica Plains, MA 02130
 Email: charming.beantownsociety@gmail.com
 Website: www.beantownsociety.org
 Beantown Society's mission is to unite youth across race, class, culture, and neighborhood to end youth violence by transforming young people's oppression, rejection, neglect, and depression into youth power. The program addresses the oppression that breeds violence - especially racism, classism, sexism, heterosexism, adultism, and the connections between these systems of oppression - by supporting transformation at the individual, community, and societal levels. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Children of Marsha P. Johnson $24,000

Jahnice Cajigas
 928 Chapel Street, Suite 201
 New Haven, CT 06510
 Email: thechildrenofmarshapjohnson@gmail.com
 Website: N/A
 Children of Marsha P. Johnson’s mission is to create real and sustainable systematic change that improves the lives of Black, Brown, and Indigenous LGBTQ+, Trans, and nonbinary folks in their communities. They do this by supporting youth organizing work, building people power, and changing how power operates. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

GROW Windham $13,200

Sally Millius
 872 Main Street
 Willimantic, CT 06226
 Email: growwindham@gmail.com
 Website: www.growwindham.org
 GROW Windham cultivates relationships and creates space for youth, community members, and food system partners to work together to build a stronger community and local food system. Haymarket funds will go to general operating to support building capacity and support their transition to a BILPOC-led program.

JustME for JustUS $13,200

Laura Bither
 PO Box 413
 Brunswick, ME 04011
 Email: laura.bither@gmail.com
 Website: www.justmeforjustus.org
 JustME for JustUS (JMJU) is a youth-led and rural-led organization ensuring young people in rural Maine have their voices heard throughout the state, especially around issues of climate, environment, and economic opportunities. JMJU’s approach is place-based not only to build trust and long term relationships within their target counties, but to ensure their strategies for change are truly coming from within the communities that have traditionally been excluded from the mainstream climate movement. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Revere Youth in Action $18,350

Sandy Wright
 PO Box 13
 Revere, MA 02151
 Email: sandy@ryia.org
 Website: N/A
 Revere Youth in Action (RYiA) builds youth and community power through organizing, education, and art and working in coalition for social justice. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

United Youth Empowerment Services $18,350

Omar Hassan
 145 Lisbon Street, Suite 406
 Lewiston, ME 04240
 Email: ohassan@unitedyes.org
 Website: www.unitedyes.org
 United Youth Empowerment Services empowers the will of the people to work together to make the kinds of changes in the Twin Cities necessary for all residents to live together creatively, inspiring the next generation to take the mantle of responsibility to become leaders of the cities. Haymarket funding will support their work to raise the youth’s voices, support their leadership in the community, and promote their ideas for bringing about racial equity and social justice to develop their platform for change.

Worcester Youth Cooperatives $18,350

Addison Turner
 24 Holcombe Street, B
 Worcester, MA 01605
 Email: unite@worcesteryouthcoops.org
 Website: www.worcesteryouthcoops.org
 Worcester Youth Cooperatives mission is to move in international solidarity towards a post-capitalist world by supporting the power of youth to organize cooperative solutions to social issues they care about. They use a combination of cooperative economics, community organizing, and mutual aid to advance their mission. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

Youth Justice and Power Union $24,000

George Lee
 c/o The City School
 614 Columbia Road
 Dorchester, MA 02125
 Email: george@yjpuboston.org
 Website: N/A
 Youth Justice and Power Union (Y.J.P.U.) is a community grassroots organization that centers the voices of Black and Brown youth in Boston. They focus on leadership development and community building through mentorship, political education, campaign organizing, and base-building. Y.J.P.U.’s mission is to build collective power to address systemic issues, at the root, happening in communities and confront them through organizing and direct action. Haymarket funds will go to general operating support.

2023 URGENT RESPONSE GRANTS

Southern Maine Workers' Center

$2,000

Ronny Flannery
56 North Street, Suite 100
Portland ME 04101
Email: ronny@maineworkers.org
Website: www.maineworkers.org

Out for Good, Inc.

$5,000

Christopher Conway
925 Washington Street, Suite 12,
Dorchester MA 02119
Email: cconway@outforgoodinc.com
Website: http://www.outforgoodinc.com

Community Youth Services

$5,000

Tijjani Abacha
11 Beck Avenue
Auburn, ME 04210
Email: tjabacha@communityyouthservicesinc.org
Website: www.communityyouthservicesinc.org

Revere Housing Coalition

$5,000

Lor Holmes
243 Campbell Avenue
Revere MA 02151
Email: LEHolmes9@gmail.com
Website: N/A

R.P.M. Voices of Rhode Island

$5,000

Kia Baird
300 Weybossett Street
Providence, RI 02903
Email: info@rpmvoices.com
Website: www.rpmvoices.com

Education Justice Coalition of Vermont

$5,000

Alyssa Chen
393 Manhattan Drive
Burlington VT 05401
Email: alyssa.edjvt@gmail.com
Website: https://edjcoalitionvt.org/

